CHARLESTON MEETING ENDS !

IDEAL WEATHER MARKS THE CLOSE OF PAL-METTO PARK SEASON.

Horsemen Lose No Time in Leaving South Carolina Track for New Orleans and Havana-Two More Jockeys On Hand from Europe.

Charleston, S. C., January 2.—With the running of today's card the winter meeting of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association came to a close. The program was an ordinary one, the card being nade up of a series of selling races, with the conditions in a majority of cases calling for non-winters at the meeting. Racing conditions could not have been improved upon, the weather being delightful, while the track was in good shape. Interesting concests were the order. The best finish of the afternoon came with the running of the first race, in which Moisant just managed to last long enough to beat Master Joe a nose. Ida Lavinia, which made all of the pace faltered in the final stricks.

which made all of the pace faltered in the final stricks.

At the conclusion of the afternoon's program came an exides of followers of the sport to New Orleans and Coha. A special train departed for the Crescent City fonight and another left for Havana. The first lag special train for Cuba left this morning. It was made up of twelve cars and is due to arrive in Inavana Monday morning.

A letter from T. P. Hayes to John M. Goodebrought encouraging information to horsemen. Mr. Haves pronounced the track at Oriental Park the fastest in the world and the buildings at the course in keeping. Encouraging reports also came from New Orleans.

The stewards did not allow the protest entered by William Cahill against the claiming of the nly Change by J. W. Hedrick, Mr. Cahill's ground for the protest was that Golden Lassie was not readdled by her programmed trainer.

Jockey George Varga, a recent arrival from Ger-nany, stopped over here on his way to Havana, where he will ride las a free lance. Varga rode seventy-two winners in 1913, and can ride at 96 goowds. Jockey Matt McGee who rode successfully in France before the breaking out of the war, will lise, ride at Havany. ride at Havana

AMERICAN RACING STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR 1914

In spite of the disturbance of normal conditions that has naturally attended the armed strife in which several of the world's greatest nations have been engaged since early in August, American racing throughout 1914 continued to regain ground lost in the years from 1907 to 1911. It was in the latter year that the American turf made its poorest showing of recent times, following a period of legislative harassment in various parts of the United States. Each year since has brought an improvement. The gain in dollars and cents for 1914 over 1913 is by no means as impressive as was that of the preceding year and is not an accurate barometer of the improvement in general turf conditions that has actually taken place during the year just ended. It may traly be said that the beginning of 1915 finds the American turf in a much healthier cendition than could have been reasonably expected a few years ago, when the outlook was dark, indeed. The improvement that has taken place has been on a basis that pronouses permanency and; all in all, the present situation is one from which the devotees of thoroughbred racing may derive much comfort. That 1915 will show further substantial gains seems assured at this writing.

The total distribution in stakes and purses by the recognized tracks of North America during 1914 amounted to nearly three million dollars. The exact figures are $2,994,525, and they represent the best showing made since 1969. An interesting exposition of this phase of racing, covering the years from 1905 to 1914, is herewith given:

PATRONAGE AGAIN IS GOOD

SECOND DAY OF NEW ORLEANS MEETING SATISFACTORY TO MANAGEMENT.

System of Betting Working Out in Smoother Manner -Influx of Visitors Attracted by Racing Continues-Racing Well Contested.

New Orleans, La., January 2.—While there was a toticeable decrease from yesterday's immense attendance, the Business Men's Racing Association had no cause for complaint over the patronage that the sport at the Fair Grounds received this afternoon, as the huge grandstand was well filled and the Palm Garden likewise was visited by a considerable number of people. There was an absence of confusion in the Palm Garden this afternoon and unlike yesterday's bothersome features attending the placing of a wager, the new method of betting seemed to work like a charm and will be smoothed out still further as the meeting goes along. Numerous tables that lined both sides of the garden were taken out and the bonded stake holders remained in more fixed places, enabling a winner to locate his man more readily. There was also a tendency on the part of those in the Palm Garden towards solidity and some of the odds obtained by the individual bettors were liberal.

The sport was again enjoyable and enthusiasm was almost on a par with that of yesterday. The winners were cheered to the echo and the din and noise of the entiusiastic spectators continued from barrier rise.

The juvenile scramble, which inaugurated the afternoon's sport was a thrilling struggle for the entire three furlongs. The first four in the racelanded noses apart, with Mary H. running in the colors of John huffman and ridden by "Chief" Johnson, winning in the last stride from the supposed "good thing." Investment, on which Goldstein three away the race, because he let the Civili filly go extremely wide for the entire trip, J. W. May's filly, Deliver, was also going fast at the end after being a smart factor most of the way and managed to nip out Dr. J. S. Tyree's representative, School for Scandal, for third place.

Only two favorites, Miss Kruter and Yenghee, scored during the afteraoon. Both were piloted by E. Pool, and won in handy fashion. The choices that failed were Investment, in the opener; Rodondo, in the third; Stick Pin, in the fifth; and Hypatia, in the closing dash. In the last named race High Class was by far the best, but only managed to take third money because of Van Dusen's mistake in steering the Brandt representative wide all

There was another big influx of newcomers today. Most of them were easterners and they announced that the racing folks of the metropolis are taking a keen interest in the action here and will flock to the Crescent City in large numbers beginning next week. Leo Mayer and Sol Lichenstein are among those who will arrive here next week.

Judge Murphy received congratulations during the day from Manager Fred Auerbach of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association and from Francis J. Nelson, of Toronto.

Secretary Joseph McLennan wired this afternoon

Mars Cassidy Is Taken Ill and Judge Shelley Sends the Fields Away at Mexican Course.

El Paso, Tex., January 2.—The attendance at Juarez today was rather small, as the weather was slightly cloudy. In the absence of starter Mars Cassidy, who was suddenly stricken this morning with an attack of acute indigestion, William H. Shelley sent the fields away, and Harry Breivogel discharged Mr. Shelley's duties as placing judge, Judge Shelley's work at the barrier left little to be desired.

The results of the afternoon's racing, which was confined to short dashes for selling platers, favored the layers, who finally benefited from a good break.

Favorite accounted for half the card, the successful choices including Twilight, Lady Mint and Parnell Girl. The track was still extremely heavy and evidently will take a considerable time to dry out to a normal condition.

The stable of Mrs. Anita Baldwin McClaughry. daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin, is due to arrive from Los Angeles in a few days.

News of the death of J. F. Newman at his home in Sweetwater, Tex., was received here with general regret. Hart Newman, who is racing the Newman stable here, was at the bedside when the end came. The interment was in the family plot near Sweetwater.

riders in the southwest, died last Thursday at Tulsa, Okla.

Throughout the month of December there was more rain in this section than was ever before known, and as a consequence mud runners have enjoyed the greatest opportunity they have had in the history of the Juarez course. Handicapped as the sport has been by the unusual wet season, the attendance has been good on the average and on the big days of extra proportions. With good weather ruting from now on, the best horses in training here will have a chance to show their quality. Unquestionably some good two-year-olds will show up in the next few weeks and perhaps some of them will shine as turf stars as Hawthorn did in 1912 and Old Rosebud in 1913.

With the return of perfect track conditions, Secretary Jasper will frame his programs of overnight races to bring together the many stars quartered here. There are still ulne stakes to be decided during the meeting, the last of which is set to be run on Sunday, March 14.

Price McKinney, of Cleveland, and his racing partner, J. W. Corrigan, have arrived here for a stay of several weeks to see their two-year-olds in the stable of W. C. Claney, race. These youngsters will be the first to carry the colors of these two Cleveland turfmen, both of whom are heavy stockholders in the Jockey Club Juarez and genuin-sportsmen. These colts and fillies will. carry the famous colors formerly carried by the horses owned by Dwyer Bros. and made forever historic by the deeds of such great racers as Bramble, Luke Blackburn, Hanover, Hindoo, Kingston, Inspector B., Dew Drop and scores of other noted horses which raced with distinction on all the big race tracks in days agone. P. J. Dwyer generously presented these colors to Mr. McKinney and the friends of this new racing firm expect to see them borne in a few years by new stars of the turf bred in Kentucky by Mr. McKinney that will race as brilliantly as did the great horses owned by Dwyer Bros.

Of the nearly 800 horses now quartered at Juarez, it is remarkable that only three a son of Faustis surely sired horses posessing high speed, and had he been fortunate to have been to cated in Kentucky in his best days as a sire, it is more than likely that he would have proved a big breeding success.

Field Bros., of Missouri, have here in charge of trainer J. A. Seckington, the first two-year-olds by that famous performer Waldo, winter favorite for the Kentucky Derby of 1910. One is a brown gelding out of the good mare Froken, while the other is a bay filly out of Rose Pompom. The latter will race under the name of Can Do, while the gelding has been named Wildo. They are both quite promising in their early training, and in the opinion of many good judges, are sure to prove good winners as two-year-olds. Field Bros. have four other older horses in training at Juarez, one of which, Tyree, is a daughter of Broomstick, which is regarded by them as of great value as a prospective broodmare, as her dam. Ethel Pace, is a noted producer.

S. J. Kelly finally concluded there was no chance to win a race with the five-year-old mare Ladyfinger in the near future, if ever again, and sold her a few days ago to an officer at Fort Bliss, El-Paso, for cavalry service. He had a better offer for her from this quarter than any tender he received from horsemen looking for broodmare prospects, though Ladyfinger is Kentucky bred, being by Nasturtium—Favena, by Favor. Her new owner will use her for the next year or two in the army service and then will likely mate her to some government bureau horse doing stud service.

Tom Hatfield, of Louisville, who has not raced in his home town since the days of Pinkola. Just Red and other horses he had there several seasons ago, may make a trip to Churchill Downs the coming spring with the idea of picking up a good horse or two for Western racing next summer and the Juarez winter faeeting of 1915-1916. Mr. Hatfield's Jake Argent is now coming around after a spell of sickness and he hopes to be able to get him to the post next month.

ONE OF THE TURF'S LATEST RECRUITS.

ONE OF THE TURF'S LATEST RECRUITS,

Lexington, Ky., January 2.—John H., Staaper, Jc., owner of the Orpheum theatre, a lucrative moving picture house in this city, is a recruit to the ranks of Kentucky turfmen. Mr. Stamper began his turf operations as an occasional investor in pari-mutuel tickets at the Kentucky Association meeting last spring. He visited Louisville and Latonia occasionally during the spring and summer meetings and in the fall he made his visits more frequent, until near the close of the Latonia meeting he made his debut as an owner by purchasing the six-year-op: Wild Mint gelding, Impression. He entered into an arrangement with John Hogan as trainer and a short while later he bought a couple of yearlings by McGee from Charles W. Moore of this city—a chestnut cold out of White Plume and a bay filly out of Virginia Moore, the dam of White Plume. The cold he named Prince Harry for his sou and the filly's cognomen is Ethel May for his daughter. These are two-year-olds and are now at New Orleans in the Hogan stable. A few days ago Mr. Stamper purchased his fourth racer when he secured the three-year-old Broomstick filly, Broom Flower from jockey Phil Musgrave, whose mother was her owner.

While Mr. Stamper has during the past racing senson come to be known as a courageous bettor, and has on the Kentucky tracks something of a plunger's reputation, he is not one of those who must be on every race every day. He wagers only when his judgment directs, and has been known to go for days without making a bet, after having put aside much of what would be ordinarily called "good information." That his judgment has been good is for any without making a bet, after having put aside much of what would be ordinarily called "good information." That his judgment has been good is statested by his success. His horses were purchased with a portion of his winnings and he still has a good balance on the right side of the ledger, which will be converted into herse flesh when he is constrained to make additional purchases,

Although its offerings were diminished as compared with the preceding year, the Piping Rock Racing Association is again the leader among the racing organizations of North America in the item of daily average distribution of prize money. It leads the Ontario Jockey Club for such distinction by a narrow margin only. The latter makes the best showing in this respect it its history and, of course, distributed a much greater total than the leader, since its racing covered fourteen days, as against four at Piping Rock. Next in order follow Saratoga, Syraeuse, Dorval, Churchill Downs, Douglas Park, Blue Bonnets, Aquednet, Whitser and Latenia, all with averages in excess of $5.000. The tabelation that follows shows the daily average distribution of the various organizations, compared with their averages in preceding years:

For a second time, John W. Schorr, of Memphis, Tenn., has gained the distinction of leading the money-winning owners of the American turf. Similar honors fell to Mr. Schorr in 1912. The possession of two such sterling three-year-olds as Luke McLuke and David Craig was an important factor in Mr. Schorr's success. Second place goes to the credit of James Butler, of New York, whose stable of two-year-olds bred at the famous Castletoa Stud, swept everything before them, in the east. It is the first time that Mr. Butler has figured prominently as an owner of the racing thoroughbred. Harry Payne Whitney, wealthy New York sportsman, who headed the winning owners' list of 1913, stands third, with a total of stable winnings that is in excess of the amount that landed him at the top of the list the year before. Next in order come H. G. Bedwell, R. T. Wilson (whose horses raced in the name of the Montpelier Stable), Andrew Miller, Capt. E. B. Cassatt, August Belmont, R. J. Mackenzie, W. G. Yanke and R. F. Carman, all of whom won in excess of $10,000. The thirty leaders of the year are embraced in the tabulation that follows:

ont d a lit was long ago settled that Andrew Miller's sensational three-year-old. Roomer, would figure as the chief money-winning horse of the year. His record of $29,105 won is far better than the $19,057 that put H. C. Applegate's Old Rosebud at the barround of the list in 1913, but falls far short of the amount that went the credit of the leader in the affinent days of the turf a decade or so ago, Luke ers.

McLuke and Dayid Craig, two of John W. Schorr's sterling three-year-olds, are respectively second third, while Harry Payne Whitney's unbeaten tyear-old filly, Regret, is fourth. The record of thirty leading money winning horses of the yis shown in the following tabulation:

J. McTaggart, who as an apprentice enjoyed the lead practically from the beginning of the year, carries off the everted distinction of heading the American jockey list for 1914. McTaggart temporarily lost the lead late in November as the result of having been suspended by Hugh Penny, his contract employer, for unsatisfactory riding, but regained it when his greatest rival for the honor. McCahey, ceased riding for the year at the conclusion of the Maryland racing season. It has happened in recent years that the contest for first place among the jockeys has been spirited and 1914 was no exception. McTaggart's lead over McCahey is only two winning mounts. The record of the thirty leaders of 1914 is shown below:
